Additional research on Respect WA + related info:

The chairperson of the anti-immigrant Michigan group U.S Inc., Dale M. Herder, is also currently one of the chairpersons for Federation for American Immigration Reform (FAIR), a powerful anti-immigrant hate group. It would seem that they are helping fund Keller and his campaign of hate and are his biggest financiers so far.

<http://usinc.org/board-of-directors/>

<http://www.fairus.org/about/board-of-directors>

The founder of U. S Inc., John Tanton (also on the FAIR board of directors) is a well-known anti-immigrant extremist who touts racial eugenics.

WA state PDC Data:

<http://web.pdc.wa.gov/MvcQuerySystem/CommitteeData/contributions?param=UkVTUFcgIDQ2NA%3D%3D%3D&year=2017&type=continuing>

Respect WA also had a complaint filed against them in May 2017, by Rick Eichstaedt, for allegedly failing to properly disclose expenditures related to the Prop 1 petition in Spokane:

<https://www.pdc.wa.gov/browse/cases/17797>

The group (Keller), spent $1,200 on a lawyer back in January in Bellevue. In June he started paying people between $60-$600 to collect signatures, most from out of town. The dates match up to the time when residents said they were bombarded with the aggressive, rude signature gatherers, who they say admitted to being paid. Some were from as far as FL and MI, so I'm sure Keller also paid for them to fly here. Some of the out of towners also had PO boxes listed as addresses, (Respect WA and Keller have a bunch of PO boxes as well listed for addresses in Tacoma, Burien, Seattle etc.)

<https://www.dropbox.com/s/ostigbrm0ukf0vl/100748896.pdf?dl=0>

<https://www.dropbox.com/s/yuf9ibzshjruc6a/487?dl=0>

What also doesn't make sense is that he claims to live in W Seattle (haven't found an address that's not a PO box yet) , which is still part of Seattle and thus a sanctuary city. But he's going after Burien, which is not nearly as large and hasn't been as vocal as Seattle on the resistance and political forefront. What Burien does have though, is a minority population that is nearly 40%, which is higher than Seattle's 30% minority population.

<https://www.census.gov/quickfacts/fact/table/seattlecitywashington,buriencywashington/PST045216>

Also brings to mind an email that a man at Monday's meeting was talking about from Keller. He said in the emails, Keller referred to the efforts to repeal Burien's sanctuary city status as "symbolic" and "the first step in the return to law and order". Seems like the intent is to terrorize the immigrant community?

Regardless, this seems to be well thought out and meticulously planned in advance.

*An Interesting side note, Respect WA is $31,000 in debt, with most of it belonging to Keller. He seems to be pumping a lot of his own money into this as well, and failing.

- Back in 2013, Keller had another group called "Save Our Choice", which was against the newly passed bag ban and was gathering signatures in Shoreline and Issaquah for a referendum repeal. It failed, and the group seems to be now defunct.
<http://blogs.seattletimes.com/today/2013/05/bag-ban-opponents-collecting-signatures-in-shoreline-too/>
- The Respect Washington fb group page is run by at least two people, Keller and a woman named JoAnne Butzner.
https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B\_8bqThI-dzWaHNSZllejFOOE0/view?usp=drivesdk
- The Respect WA group is over 30K in debt, most of it belonging to Keller. He needs this win to prove to his backers that he's for real. Also the group PA. I brought up to her that he was flying in people from out of state to collect signatures. First she said "they have supporters all over the state" and "Craig [Keller] doesn't have that kind of money". When I told her I saw the financial disclosures and saw otherwise, she said "It's true, I don't know details on who was hired to gather petitions. I just assumed Craig [Keller] would hire the least expensive to get the most signatures for our money"
https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B\_8bqThI-dzWeFZvazhaWW1ISFE/view?usp=drivesdk
- This ethics report was filed by a Spokane City council member, which alleges that City Councilman, Mike Faggen helped bankroll and design the petition for a repeal of Spokane's Sanctuary city title, and personally handpicked Keller and helped him fashion the Respect group, while allegedly tricking the complainant into helping them. It does not seem like this individual was aware that FAIR was indeed also bankrolling this.
<https://www.dropbox.com/s/v4wtixafm49mg8b/ethics-commission-complaint-jackie-murray-re-mike-fagan.pdf?dl=0>

The date of this ethics complaint was filed December 30th 2015, and another separate complaint was filed against Keller again in May 2017, by a different individual, Rick Eichstaedt, which accused him of failing to properly disclose his group's expenditures regarding the proposition to repeal the city's sanctuary city title.

<https://www.pdc.wa.gov/browse/cases/17797>

These are not the only two times Keller has been in trouble for failing to disclose. In March of 2016, Keller was fined a $500 civil penalty for failing to timely and accurately disclose his group's Save our Choice (the failed plastic bag ban repeal group) financial expenditures.

<https://www.dropbox.com/s/6zt0eku21ya5br7/Save%20Our%20Choice%20PAC%20Order%2C%20Cover%20Ltr%20and%20Appeal%20Rights%20%28Case%20No.%2015-047%29.pdf?dl=0>

- It says in the complaint about Keller's group (link above) "Save our Choice" that he did not disclose a $5,000 contributions from Garneau Properties back in 2014, until 235 days AFTER the deadline. Some back ground on Garneau Properties, which is located in Seattle and owned by a very wealthy, powerful, conservative, and anti-government woman, Fay Garneau. According to this: "An octogenarian advocate for Aurora Avenue merchants, Garneau almost single-handedly funded the 2013 campaign for district elections that changed the way we choose City Council members."

- Is Respect Washington organization or grassroots?

2) if it is an organization, then why doesn't it show the section 501(c)(3)? It's because of donations (see pix). It must report to IRS no matter what.

<https://www.irs.gov/publications/p557/ch03.html>

- This complaint, filed on August 11th, just a few days ago, accuses Keller of once again failing to disclose expenditures, and not reporting that the group sought legal counsel regarding the proposition 1 (Spokane sanctuary city repeal) . It is by the same Rick Eichstaedt, who lodged a similar complaint against him back in May.

The attorney representing Craig Keller and his group in this notice to appear, Stephens and Klinge LLP. , are the same lawyers that Keller/Respect WA met with back in January and paid for a $1,200.00 consultation

<https://www.dropbox.com/s/c1ew7cdnyv3rjp7/100748896%20%281%29.pdf?dl=0>

- Keller has been using the Respect WA group to try and insert extremist and anti- immigration ordinances in Spokane and Burien since 2006. Up until now he has been unsuccessful at getting anything on the ballot. His main source of funding back then, is the same Michigan hate group founder (U. S. Inc) and FAIR chairman, John Tanton, that is funding his current attempts. According to this, back in April 2009, Tanton donated $5,000.00 to Respect WA for their support and signature gathering efforts for Initiative 1043 in Spokane (a measure to force employers to use e-verify and turn local police and state employees into immigration officers). Tanton also said he "gave the money to Respect Washington because of his interest in immigration and because he supports the initiative process".

So it would seem that Respect WA is really just a hate group.

- It would seem that Respect WA is just another localized version of the John Tanton network of hate with Keller as the mascot. The group was founded by Martin Ringhofer (whose name is hardly ever mentioned) from Soap Lake, WA. Ringhofer's hatred for immigrants and love of voter suppression has been apparent since at least 2005, when he asked WA state election officials to review credentials of all voters with "foreign sounding names", in King, Spokane, Grant, Adams, Yakima and five other counties. He claimed that "the challenge of voters who may not be citizens is based on listing individuals whose first, middle and last name have no basis in the English language." He specifically targeted voters with names that were Hispanic, Asian, Russian and Ukrainian, which is a very similar method that the North Carolina voter suppression group, Voter Integrity Project, used in 2011.

Ringhofer assisted by FAIR, has also repeatedly sued King County and 38 other Washington counties, for the release of "non-juror information", arguing that being ineligible to serve on a jury means also being unable to vote in this state as well. The lawsuits were unsuccessful.

- Stephan and Klinge LLP have been representing both Keller and Ringhofer since at least 2011

- This is a letter sent out from Craig Keller to his supporters back in 2012, stating he plans on paying signature gatherers 50 cents per signature and he had somehow "stumbled across" $150,000.00 to fund these endeavors, however he did not say HOW he gained this money:
<https://www.scribd.com/document/63560769/Dear-Respect-for-Law-Supporters-Keller>

He is also listed as selling earthquake insurance made in the U.S and is a Financial Analyst Charterholder (CFA) who manages investment portfolios for retirees (this could be where he is finding retired backers for his personal campaign and for his respect group, through his work)

https://weiapplets.sos.wa.gov/MyVoteOLVR/OnlineVotersGuide/GetCandidateStatement?electionId=62&candidateId=45318&raceJurisdictionName=Congressional&Display=Statewide&partyName=\(Prefers%20Republican%20Party\)&raceName=Congressional%20District%207%20-%20U.S.%20Representative&raceName=Congressional%20District%207%20-%20U.S.%20Representative)

Despite Keller being listed as the founder of Respect WA, he is not, and the creation of the group likely wasn't his idea either. This blog, Protect Washington Now, created by Mark Ringhofer, is the early blue print of Respect WA and the earliest dated post is from 2005.

In a post dating July 7th 2006, Ringhofer announces plans to spread the group and its influence across the state. A woman named, Kathy McKee responded to that blog post and called Ringhofer a crazed loon, and accused him of stealing her group's name. Ringhofer responded by claiming he formed PWN two months before McKee appointed a man named Bob Baker as head of her organization. He then goes on to say "take me to court if you believe you really have a case". It is unclear at this time whether or not she did take him to court (it would explain the name change to Respect instead of Protect if she did) or if he did indeed "steal" this organization from McKee. Also, what's strange is the language of the responses on his part and content of the blog site seems awfully familiar to the current Respect WA website content and fb group page. If that is the case then it is actually Ringhofer who is running the show and Keller is merely the front man.

- One of Craig Keller's loyal financiers for his political campaign, Kevin Stovall, is one of the owners of Brightwood Corp in Madras, Oregon, a family owned timber business that has been ran by the Stovall family since the 60's. The Stovall's are a wealthy family whose business is worth millions, their annual revenue is about $230 million and payrolls about $45 million, and Bright Wood is the county's largest employer and third largest taxpayer (they employ about 1,200 workers). They have also donated thousands to Craig Keller's campaign, Keller4America.

<http://portlandtribune.com/component/content/article?id=139566>

Brightwood seems to have shady dealings of its own, and they were sued in 2002 by a former employee who claimed they fired him because of his active status in the Oregon National Guard.

<http://caselaw.findlaw.com/us-9th-circuit/1019483.html>

In 2004, Brightwood found itself in hot water after one of their employees, Susana Parish, was killed after being struck by a forklift when she went to go pick up debris. Another worker died 14 years prior, back in 1990, in a similar fashion, when the forklift he was driving tipped over and crushed him. For that incident Bright Wood was fined $2,500.00 for failing to provide proper supervision, and cited for a serious violation. There has also been 12 industrial accidents investigated by The Oregon Occupational Safety and Health Division (OSHA), and since 1995 Bright Wood has been cited for 34 serious violations, which is defined as a hazard that employees may be seriously injured or killed, and 11 repeat violations where those hazards were not corrected.

- As it turns out Martin Ringhof is not the original founder of Protect Washington Now, Bob Baker, another anti-immigrant extremist from Mercer Island is. Baker is a proclaimed minute man (an armed vigilante group that patrols the border and reports any undocumented immigrant they encounter to immigration) who likes to patrol the U.S./Canadian border with a loaded pistol, looking for any "illegals". He sponsored the anti-immigrant initiative 494 back in 2006, which aimed to deny any services funded by taxpayer money to anyone who could not claim citizenship, and force law enforcement and other government workers to turn in any undocumented person they encounter to immigration or face legal repercussions. The initiative did not get enough votes and failed to make it on the ballot.

Protect Washington, is in essence 'a spinoff of Protect America Now, which formed in Arizona after Proposition 200 passed in 2004. PAN's founder, Kathy McKee, wrote I-946 a check for $200, which was the campaign's first monetary contribution'.

https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B\_8bqThI-dzWaWtPM05iRnU4TXc/view?usp=sharing
<http://protectwashingtonnow.blogspot.com/>

- Bob Baker, the original "founder" of Respect WA, was part of a local minutemen group here in Seattle, who patrol the U. S/Canadian border with loaded weapons and military grade gear, looking for "illegals" crossing the border. The group as a whole is classified by Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC) as a hate group and was embroiled in scandals during 2009-2010, that ultimately led to the disbandment of the main group in Arizona, however some chapters in other states still remained operational. The Arizona chapter specifically were noted for their aggression towards Hispanics and some of its members were involved in murder (one of their members murdered a 9yr old Hispanic girl and her father during an armed robbery), burglary, and felony tax evasion.

If these are the people and groups that founded and are supporting Respect WA, then what they are REALLY after is the ethnic cleansing of Hispanics from the country.

<https://www.splcenter.org/fighting-hate/intelligence-report/2010/top-minuteman-group-announces-breakup>

- It turns out that FAIR is involved in Respect WA's endeavors in more ways than one. "Attorney Richard Stephens, former counsel for the Washington House Republican Caucus, is representing Respect Washington. Stephens is working in concert with the Immigration Reform Law Institute, the legal arm of the Tanton-founded."

<http://www.spokesman.com/stories/2017/aug/19/sanctuary-city-opponents-in-spokane-receiving-legal/>

- Craig Keller works at Taylor Devices as a manufacturers' representative. The company, which is based in North Tonawanda, NY, specializes in building shockproof and earthquake protection devices, specifically fabricated in the USA. They build parts for a wide range of products and projects, including Safeco Field in Seattle, parts for NASA rockets and aerospace defense, military defense, schools, and many others. The company is currently in a financial snag, and after October 7th 2016, Taylor's stocks dropped sharply and has been steadily decreasing ever since.

- Spokane Council member Mike Fagan, who quietly enlisted the help of Craig Keller and his group Respect WA to sabotage Spokane's Sanctuary city ordinance and ensure their own "rule of law" conservative candidates are elected, has a history of shady political dealings. In May 25th 2016, Mike Fagan, Jack Fagan, Tim Eyman, and Barbara Smith had a complaint filed against them that stated that their 30$ car tab campaign was in fact a cover to support 21 candidates for office and oppose 54 others.

<https://www.pdc.wa.gov/sites/default/files/meeting-resources/PDC%20Case%205729%20-%20Tim%20Eyman%20-%20Bring%20Back%20Our%20%2430%20Car%20Tabs%20VWMC%202016%20-%20et%20al.pdf>
<http://www.spokesman.com/stories/2016/sep/29/spokane-city-councilman-mike-fagan-named-in-tim-ey/>

Fagan also aided the Respect WA group in putting language on the initiative that was illegal in nature (this was regarding the recent lawsuit in Spokane that Keller lost, confirming that the language on the initiative was in fact illegal and intended to change city immigration policy.)

<https://www.inlander.com/Bloglander/archives/2015/08/03/spokane-city-council-spat-snyder-files-ethics-complaint-against-fagan>

Also similar to Keller, Faggan has a penchant for failing to properly file financial disclosures, as well as being directly involved with Tim Eyman's illicit pocketing of campaign funds for personal expenses and his payments to a signature collection group, Citizen Solutions of $1,218,325, to illegally push an initiative co-sponsored by Mike Fagan, to change the laws to their benefit, on how signatures are collected.

- On August 11th, council member Deborah Wagner, who also signed Prop 1, donated $300 to Respect WA, which also listed her employer on that PDC disclosure as 'Consumer Opinion Research', a market research company. And on August 17th Burien Mayor Lucy Krakowiak (who also signed Keller's prop1) donated $100 to Wagner's re-election campaign
  - In this letter to Dick West, Keller admits that the efforts to repeal Burien's sanctuary city status is largely symbolic, and an attempt at getting their conservative "rule of law" candidates who share the same ideals, elected into city council. Also, conservative

Burien city council candidate, Darla Green has been aiding Keller and his Respect WA group in these efforts:

https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B\_8bqThl-dzWRkdnVzJQY251Tjg/view?usp=sharing

Also the signatory list for Keller's Prop 1 repeal initiative is here:

- Here's an email to city council from Burien resident, Dick West (the same person Keller sent the email to) dated August 18th, calling out Keller's harassment of speakers with his video camera and the appearance of Mayor Lucy Krakoviyak, Debbie Wagner, former deputy mayor Edgar, and city manager Wilson of allowing this and "helping" Keller, for political gain.

There is also a video stated in the email, of myself and 13 other speakers stating that we would not disclose our address because we felt unsafe doing so:

<https://youtu.be/xef8z431Z80>

- Conservative Burien City Council candidate, who was mentioned in Keller's email to Dick West, Darla Green's financial disclosures on the PDC reveal that the Burien mayor, Lucy Krakowiak, donated $100 to Dala's election campaign on August 11th, and Council member Debi Wagner also donated $50 to Green's campaign dated on July 6th. Also one of her donors is Susan Mathews of Kidder Mathews investments, a multistate commercial property broker, of $970.

- According to these meeting notes, Craig Keller has been involved with some of Tim Eyman's seemingly illegal initiatives. He aided Eyman collect signatures for his 2015 I-1366 initiative regarding sales tax, which was eventually thrown out by a superior court judge who ruled it "unconstitutional".

https://ballotpedia.org/Washington\_Sales\_Tax\_Decrease\_or\_Two-Thirds\_Vote\_for\_Tax\_Increase,\_Initiative\_1366\_\(2015\))

- So it would seem the guy that stalked Burien City Council candidate back in June, Pedro Olguin, Chuck Rangel, is actually working with Craig Keller. Rangel is the district chair and treasurer for the 34th district of Republicans and Keller is the West Seattle Regional chair leader. Darla Green is also involved with them and both Keller and Rangel have been actively helping her campaign for some time. Also, the members of the 34th district Republicans, have been donating money to Keller's group, and also each other's political campaigns. This entire anti sanctuary city proposition is nothing more than a ploy to get their "rule of law" conservative buddies elected. And JoAnne Butzerine, the woman who says she runs the Respect WA fb page, is also a member of the 34th district as well.

To recap:

The 34th district republicans, are bankrolling conservative, "rule of law" Burien city Council candidate, Darla Green, and this disgusting anti-immigrant initiative prop 1.

Also the Joanne woman who runs the respect WA page is also a member of the 34th district GOP.

- Craig Keller and respect WA appears to have lied about "the Burien DACA rapist". King county jail system has just updated their info on him. He is an American and his race is listed as non - Hispanic. He is also being housed in King County Correctional facility in Seattle. After nearly 3 months if this guy was an immigrant he would have been transferred to an immigration xzm detainment facility by now. I also searched ICE's database of detainees and he was nowhere to be found. Fox News and Breitbart did not even know Burien existed until this, which leads me to believe Keller was intentionally digging for local stories of immigrants committing serious crimes, came across the story of Salvador Diaz-Garcia and assumed by name and appearance only that he must be "illegal" and concocted the story of him being on DACA and then gave the story to Fox News for political gain.
