If Mueller gets fired, it will be a Constitutional crisis.

This has been a relatively quiet week because Congress is coming back from recess, and it takes time for bills to move through.

Canvassing for Manka Dhingra

Beginner's guide to canvassing: <https://goo.gl/6iWHjY>.

There is canvassing in Redmond every Saturday and Sunday at 10 and 1. Each shift takes about 2 hours, and there is training – and you can go with a friend!

It only takes one seat for Democrats to finally be in the majority in WA in the House, Senate and Governorship.

Millions has been spent on this campaign: <https://goo.gl/fRcAM6>. Getting this seat would give democrats the majority and enable them to make progressive changes: making the whole west coast progressive.

Even aside from needing democrats acting locally, state seats are very important because in 2020 each state will be redistricted. This enables whoever is in the majority in the State Congress to gerrymander. Also, states can serve as incubators for policies that can then go national.

An example of this from WA is the balancing incentive program, which enables the elderly to stay in their homes. In addition to this, Federal Congresspeople generally come from those originally taking smaller roles, and we need democrats filtering up. 7:30-8:30pm Keep Fracked Gas Out of Washington: Informational Forum

@ Redmond Library, 15990 NE 85th Street, Redmond, Washington 98052

Fossil fuel companies are attempting to turn the Northwest into a thoroughfare for fracked gas exports. A key part of their strategy is to site the world's largest methanol refinery and export terminal on the Columbia River in Southwest Washington. This refinery would consume more gas than any sector of Washington's economy, requiring gas pipeline expansions through King County, an opening the floodgates for fracked gas usage and exports in our state.

Join us for an informational forum about this proposal and find out how to keep fracked gas out of Washington!

Speakers include: Eric Deplace, Sightline Institute; Mark Vossler, MD- Washington Physicians for Social Responsibility, Washington Physicians for Social Responsibility. FB event: <https://goo.gl/7n2bmd>.

To participate, fill out an application: <http://bit.ly/2wdhUqc>.

Pramila Jayapal is not your average member of Congress. She's an immigrant. She's a woman of color. She's not an attorney — she's an activist. And because of her diverse, intersectional background, she's not afraid to tackle big issues in new ways and bring a fresh perspective to the conversations taking place in Washington, D.C.

If we want our representatives to be more reflective of our communities, we must start by helping more intersectional candidates run for office. That's where you come in! To participate, click here to fill out an application: <https://goo.gl/ZvMs8m>.
